NATIONAL UNION NOMINATIONS.

For President,

Why they Prefer Fremont.

Nearly all those journals which under the guise of the Democracy have advocated the principles of treason and secession for the past three years, are out in favor of John C Fremont Knowing that any openly avowed copperhead candidate could not rally around him a corporal's guard of supporters they are satisfied to take Fremont as a fitting instrument with whom to attempt the overthrow of the Government These vile traitors have double cause for gratitude on account of their present candidate While Fremont was in command, he gathered about him the most notorious crowd of thieves and swindlers that has ever had a chance to contract for the Union army No sooner was his rascality proven than these same copperhead journals set up a hue and cry at the Administration for keeping such men in place Fremont was removed Soon they abused the Government for not returning him to a command, ignored what they had called outraging the rights of and robbing the American people, and charged the Administration with jealousy of his military zeal and political influence Now he has come out flat footed against the Administration, the copperheads are in full sympathy with his motives, and are lavish of their expressions in his praise

Some of the papers devoted to a disintegration of these United States, rise out and upward from the depths of their political mire and lust of their own baseness and depravity The editor of the Review, whose fulminations disgrace the rotten rags from which his paper is made glories in the "bold" dishonor of Fremont, and—to the credit of our President be it said—denounces Mr Lincoln because he aims to be honest The War Democrats of this coast, will treat Fremont with the contempt he deserves, and go heart and soul for the re election of Abraham Lincoln

THE MISSING STEAMER GOLDEN AGE —Our readers cannot but regret the failure of the telegraph line between Portland and San Francisco last evening, as, aside from the intense interest generally felt in the news from the battle fields, the prolonged absence of the steamship Golden Age, with her freight of 750 passengers fills many expectant breasts with dire alarm The passengers which left New York on May 23d per steamer Illinois are supposed to have embarked on the Age at Panama, and although long over due, our latest dispatch from below reported her still missing. The thought of her having possibly met with an Anglo Rebel, or what is even worse, an American Rebel pirate, is enough to make the bravest heart shudder, for since the Fort Pillow massacre has developed the real intention of the rebels on shore, we have no reason to anticipate their showing mercy on the sea It is barely possible, however that the ship is ashore somewhere down the coast, out of the regular course and without the means of prompt communication with any passing craft or inland settlement Let us hope for the best, if she is lost the intelligence will come soon enough

The Eugene Review has devoted about a column and a half to the expedition of Capt Olney, regards all efforts he may make toward perfecting the company organization as unavailing, because they will not be mustered in to the United States service and thinks Gov Gibbs will be blameable if he does not call out the militia of the State We sympathize with the bilious editor in his disappointment when he reads Gen Alvord's letter in our issue of yesterday The prompt action of our Government in the premises has deprived him of any quantity of "lender material

Gen Hunter is of the decided opinion that the Government owes it to itself to adopt a retaliatory policy on account of the Fort Pillow butchery and that the most vigorous measures must be adopted to arrest the outrages upon life and property, if the plantation scheme is continued Not a day passes but intelligence reaches the military posts of from one to five plantations being "raided" by bands of guerillas and in each case a number of negroes are invariably shot dead or hung

GEN KAUTZ THE CAPTOR OF JOHN MORGAN —General August V Kautz the leader of the expedition against the Richmond and Weldon Railroad, is a native of Ohio, and a graduate of West Point Although his name is not familiar in the East, he is well and favorably known among our Western soldiers as the man who captured John Morgan He was for many years stationed on this coast principally in Washington Territory He was called East about two years ago He was then a Lieut of Infantry

THE WORK OF THE SANITARY COMMISSION —The following letter from the Treasurer of the Commission received last evening by Mr Holbrook will give to our readers some idea of the immense operations of this beneficent organization especially during the last weeks of the Virginia battles

68 WALL STREET NEW YORK [illegible] 1864

MY DEAR SIR I have the [illegible] to the relief of the National army [illegible] the United States Sanitary Commission [illegible]

It [illegible] your fellow citizens seem [illegible] words by which [illegible]

It is a notorious fact [illegible] for supplies [illegible] army [illegible] West $208 [illegible] at a daily cost of $ 00 and maintaining a force of two hundred [illegible] relief agents and a train of some fifty wagons and as I verily believe [illegible] saving scores if not hundreds of lives every day

I am most respectfully and truly yours
GEORGE T STRONG
Treas U S San Com

Hon AMORY HOLBROOK Portland Oregon

THE NATIONAL FINANCES—LETTER BY SECRETARY CHASE —The following letter was addressed by the Secretary of the Treasury to a bank officer under date of May 15th

SIR—Your letter of the 13th instant making inquiries in regard to the kind of currency with which the 5 20 years 6 per cent and 3 years 7 30 per cent notes are to be redeemed has been received

It has been the constant usage of the Department to redeem all coupon and registered bonds forming a part of the funded or permanent debt of the United States in coin and this usage has not been departed from during my administration of its affairs All treasury notes and other obligations forming a part of the temporary loan are payable and will be redeemed in lawful money that is to say in United States notes until after the resumption of specie payments when they also will doubtless be redeemed in coin or equivalent notes

The 5 20 sixes being payable 20 years from date though redeemable after 5 years are considered as belonging to the funded or permanent debt and so also are the 20 year sixes into which the 3 years 7 30 notes are convertible These bonds, therefore according to the usage of the Government are payable in coin The 3 years 7 30 treasury notes are a part of the temporary loan and will be paid in United States notes unless the holders prefer conversion to payment

Very respectfully S P CHASE
Secretary of the Treasury

THE BOGUS PROCLAMATION —A New York correspondent thus relates how the proclamation hoax was stopped from going abroad, at least without an antidote It will be seen that nothing but the vigilance and activity of the United States officials prevented this document from starting without truth for a competitor, upon its errand of mischief

The steamer had left her dock for Europe before its bogus character was fully known A swift sailing steamer was sent after her which overtook her Every paper was removed except those in the hands of the passengers An instrument was drawn up exposing the forgery, and placed in the hands of trusty citizens on board, which is to be telegraphed to London on the arrival of the vessel

GEN MCDOWELL —The Washington correspondent of the Bulletin under date of May 17th, writes Major General Irwin McDowell has left the city to take his departure for California, as Commander of the Department of the Pacific Though this officer has been very unfortunate in his military career during the last three years, he is nevertheless a thoroughly loyal citizen and a brave and accomplished soldier. The charges of intemperance and disloyalty once so freely leveled against him never had a shadow of just basis as all who come in contact with him will readily satisfy themselves when he reaches your shores.

TO DETERMINE THE VALUE OF GREENBACKS —A simple method of determining the value of greenbacks is as follows

Divide the sum of 10,000 by the price of gold in New York Per example, say that the price of gold in New York to-day is 198, 10,000 divided by 198 is 50 100 198, or very nearly 50½ cents. The brokers on this coast usually add five per cent, which would make the value here at the above price for gold in New York [illegible] cents

On the 23d ult, two men were captured near Annapolis, Maryland, with a large rebel mail destined to Baltimore, with letters for New York, Boston and Philadelphia parties Also $4,000 in gold and $22 000 in greenbacks The letters speak of a scarcity of food, etc, and contain highly important information.

Citizens of Trinity County, California, are to invest $5 250 in a gold brick, and send it East for the Sanitary Commission At the last reported premium on gold, it will be worth more than $10,000 in currency upon its arrival East

In Cleveland, Ohio, a few days ago an old gentleman was passing a couple of ladies on the sidewalk, when his foot caught in the crinoline of one of them and he fell backwards, striking his head violently against the bottom of a lamp post, laying open his scalp and stunning him

Judge Cowles, of San Francisco, recently decided that a promissory note not bearing a revenue stamp is not valid, and that greenbacks are a legal tender for a bill with the words "payable in gold coin" printed thereon as such a bill is not a specific contract within the meaning of the act

The small pox is spreading rapidly through the States In Cincinnati it is worse than ever was known before, in Cleveland Ohio, it is said that there are upward of twelve hundred cases, and in Columbus and other places it is very bad It seems to have started from the military camps and hospitals

Crucifixion is still practiced in China A criminal was nailed to the cross on Wednesday October 28th and survived until the following Saturday, when his legs were broken and he was strangled

Twenty one diamonds found in the State of Missouri, were on exhibition at the Sanitary Fair in St. Louis

A FIGHT WITH THE [illegible] —A correspondent of the Newark Advertiser writing from [illegible] United States gunboat Mi[illegible] [illegible] river, May 6th gives the following graphic description of a fierce conflict between our fleet and the rebel ram Albemarle

We have just passed through the second engagement with that ugly little ram the Albemarle [illegible] afternoon at [illegible] in company with the steamer Cotton Planter and the Bombshell which last they sunk at the attack on Plymouth and [illegible] the river We started slowly and they followed Captain French sent the [illegible] ahead to inform the remainder of the fleet

At four o'clock [illegible] running up at full speed When the rebel fleet saw our [illegible] eight knots [illegible] At half past four we fired the first gun— a 100 pounder rifle That was the signal for the [illegible] fight [illegible] hours The fleet took a position [illegible] circle with the ram in the centre In the meantime the Cotton Planter [illegible] her superior sailing qualities escaped The Bomb Shell was captured She [illegible] with sharpshooters

The gunboat Sassacus steamed full speed right into the ram at the same time giving her a broadside, but without the least effect The whole fleet then sailed slowly around the ram each boat as it passed [illegible] her a broadside which made the iron fly from her sides and riddled her smokestack [illegible] time she showed her teeth and began to act on the defensive She made directly for the Miami and when she was about ten yards off [illegible] at us with Whitworth rifles One shell went through our smoke stack just above the men's heads and the other went into the captain's cabin and exploded there tearing everything in the vicinity to pieces and starting the decks above A large piece of the shell went through the opposite side making a hole clean through the ship

Mr Hackett our Paymaster was lying on a sofa in the cabin at the time and wonderful to say, was not hurt in the least, although the sofa was turned over on him, and he was covered with a pile of glass, books, clothes pieces of wood and broken furniture and almost suffocated by the dust and smoke with which the cabin was filled We were also struck by a shell which burst in the wheel house and shattered our signal lamps, but did no further damage A thirty eight pound solid shot went through our second cutter, which hung alongside on its davits and there is nothing left of our "dingy" but the keel and rails Strange as it may seem, not a man on our vessel was hurt

The Sassacus got a shell in her boiler, which killed three and wounded six The Wetabassett had her deck swept by a shot, which took both legs off three men one of whom has since died, and the others are not expected to live We have not yet heard whether any other in the fleet were hurt.

The Miami fired over one hundred and seventeen times, and struck the ram over eighty times We put one shot right into one of her ports, and dismounted a gun The firing was kept up until after dark and during the night the ram got away up the river We all think that two hours of daylight would have made her ours

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY AND THE PRESIDENCY —A writer in the Atlantic Monthly for May, closes an article on the approaching Presidential election in the following manner

As there should be no change made in the political character of the government, so there should be none in the men who compose it To place power in new hands at a time like the present, would be as unwise as it would be to raise a new army for the purpose of fighting the numerous, well trained and zealous forces which the rebels have organized with the intention of making a desperate effort to re-establish their affairs There is no reason for supposing that a change would give us wiser or better men, and it is certain that they would be inexperienced men, should they all be as many Solomons or Solons As we are situated, it is men of experience that we require to administer the Government, and out of the present Administration it is impossible to find men of the kind of experience needed at this crisis of the nation's career The errors into which we fell in the early days of the contest were the effect of want of experience, and it would be but to provide for their repetition, were we to call a new Administration into existence The people understand this, and hence the very general expression of opinion in favor of the re election of President Lincoln, whose training through four most terrible years—years such as no other President ever knew—will have qualified him to carry on the Government during a second term to the satisfaction of all unselfish men Mr Lincoln's honesty is beyond question, and we need an honest man at the head of the nation now more than ever That the rebels object to him is a recommendation in the eyes of loyal men The substitution of a new man would not dispose them to submission and they would expect to profit from that inevitable change of policy which would follow from a change of men As to the "one-term principle" we never held it in much regard and we are less disposed to approve it now than we should have been, had peace been maintained Were the President elected for six or eight years it might be wise to amend the Constitution so as to prevent the re election of any man, but while the present arrangement shall exist it would not be wise to insist upon a complete change of Government every four years It holds out the Presidency as a prize to be struggled for by new men at every national election so as to increase the troubles of the country Among the causes of the Civil War, the ambition to be made President must be reckoned Every politician is a candidate [illegible] the White House [illegible] as every French conscript carries a Marshal's baton in his knapsack, and the disappointment of so many aspirants swelled the number of the disaffected to the proportions of an army [illegible] all who expected [illegible] as the consequence of this man's or that man's elevation to the Presidency Were there no other reason for desiring the re-election of President Lincoln, the fact that it would be the first step toward a return to a rule that obtained during the first half [illegible] under the existing Constitution [illegible] make us its advocates [illegible] second term [illegible] Mr Lincoln [illegible] American people [illegible] anything [illegible] future [illegible] The popular [illegible] him as the man of [illegible] and the [illegible] Convention [illegible] nothing beyond [illegible] give regular expression to the public sentiment which is too strong to be denied, and will be found [illegible]

[illegible] —The Contributor [illegible] have

On Saturday night [illegible] hundred thrifty fruit trees [illegible] William Holbrook [illegible] were girdled by [illegible] trees were six [illegible] full of fruit [illegible] nor expense in bringing [illegible] state of perfection [illegible] years care and pruning [illegible] valueless by the [illegible] right Probably the drouth has [illegible] It would be well [illegible] then guard against similar visitations

[illegible] —A distinguished American residing in Europe writes as follows to a friend at the National Capital

[illegible] American securities [illegible] a fault of [illegible] in Europe It was [illegible]

GENERAL GRANT AND THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC —General Oglesby in acknowledgment of his reception in Chicago made a speech from the balcony of the Tremont House where he was stopping in the course of which he said that he recently asked Gen Grant how he liked the Army of the Potomac. Grant replied

"It is a very fine army and these men have fought I am told with great daring and bravery They have fought well but I have this to say The Army of the Potomac has never fought its battles through "

A PATRIOTIC COMBINATION —The Springfield Republican makes this suggestion

Let us all make a treaty with Secretary Chase He shall agree to put out no more greenbacks and we will [illegible] then we shall [illegible] all keep [illegible] putting up prices in everything What say the Secretary? The people are ready

A PROOF OF PROGRESSION —We observed in the streets of our city yesterday one of Gordon's Improved Printing Presses, in transit to Idaho City, for the Boise News office. When we consider that it is but two winters since the forests of that Basin were first penetrated by civilized man and that for one half that time the press upon which the OREGONIAN was first printed, has been talking in the same Basin it must be acknowledged that we are making history much faster than our [illegible] Such an invention as the modern Printing Press working its way over the mountains, and into what was recently such a wild is a greater commentary on the progress of civilization, than we are able to pen

THE STEAMER SENATOR —This staunch steamer, which has been under the command of Captain Kellogg for five months past, in the carrying trade between here and Oregon City, will be laid up after the present week, until business on the river shall in a measure increase The Senator has proved to be all that her builders anticipated and during the time she has been in service has not lost half a trip, nor been behind the advertised time The steamer Relief has been handsomely fitted up and under the command of Capt [illegible] will commence running in that line on Monday next, the Fourth of July

GOING HOME —Officer Ward delivered to Superintendent Huntington, on board the steamer Senator yesterday morning seventeen head of aborigines fugitives from the Grand Ronde reservation, in Yamhill county They will be taken home when a big wa wa is expected There are a great many more about the city that need to be "gobbled up" and sent to their homes

THE FOURTH AT VANCOUVER —Our neighbors at Vancouver have decided not to let the Glorious Old Fourth pass without a spark of remembrance, and will accordingly, celebrate. Brig Gen Alvord is to deliver the oration In the evening a ball is to be given in behalf of the Sanitary Commission by the Ladies Aid Society Portland is expected to contribute something on the occasion.

LIME —The properties of lime are such as to drive off impurities wherever a decomposure has rendered the air obnoxious and it would be well to apply quantities along wharves and warehouses in this city, that have been submerged by the recent freshet. We observe that Capt. Couch has set a good example about his premises

OAK POINT LUMBER —The schooner Davis arrived from Oak Point yesterday, laden with lumber She has 27,000 feet on board and the commander informed us that the run was made from Oak Point to Portland in about 15 hours sailing time This is pretty good considering the set of the current of both rivers, the Columbia and Willamette.

THE COUNTY PAUPERS —Sealed proposals for the care and attendance of the indigent of our county will be received at the Clerk's office, in the Court House until Wednesday next The proposals are to state the price per day the name of sureties and be subjected to an examination by the board of county commissioners

FREIGHT BY THE STEAMSHIP —The freight taken by the Stephens from Portland this trip was meagre consisting of butter in cases and a few bales of wool The cost of baling, the freight etc, leaves but a small margin of profit on wool shipped to California at the present rates

THE FOOT RACE —The preliminaries have all been arranged for the foot race, and it is expected to occur this afternoon at five o'clock The track selected is on the opposite bank of the river, near the ferry landing. We understand side bets are freely offered by the friends of the contestants

PUBLIC MEETING —The friends of the National Freedmen's Relief Association will hold a meeting at the Methodist Episcopal Church, on Wednesday evening at 7½ o'clock Addresses will be made by C H Brackett,

SAILING OF THE JOHN L. STEPHENS.—The steamship John L. Stephens, which left this port yesterday morning at six o'clock, carried with her substantial facts to prove the worth of the mineral regions lying contiguous to Portland. Besides the amounts of Treasure quoted below, from the manifest of the Purser, we have positive information of $65,000 sent by four firms, at their own risk. We have been careful to collect the facts, and the amount of $150,000 from Victoria, will make over half a million in Treasure to be credited to the "Northern Mines," when the steamship shall arrive in San Francisco. The following is the account, so far as it was possible to obtain the true figures:

Wells, Fargo & Co., (insured)	$225,000 00

A PROOF OF PROGRESSION.—We observed in the streets of our city yesterday one of Gordon's Improved Printing Presses, in transit to Idaho City, for the Boise News office. When we consider that it is but two winters since the forests of that Basin were first penetrated by civilized man, and that for one half that time the press upon which the OREGONIAN was first printed, has been talking in the same Basin, it must be acknowledged that we are making history much faster than our forefathers made it. Such an invention as the modern Printing Press, working its way over the mountains, and into what was recently such a wild, is a greater commentary on the progress of civilization, than we are able to pen.

THE STEAMER SENATOR.—This staunch steamer, which has been under the command of Captain Kellogg for five months past, in the carrying trade between here and Oregon City, will be laid up after the present week, until business on the river shall in a measure increase. The Senator has proved to be all that her builders anticipated, and during the time she has been in service has not lost half a trip, nor been behind the advertised time. The steamer Rival has been handsomely fitted up, and under the command of Capt. Daughman, will commence running in that line on Monday next, the Fourth of July.

OREGON CITY.—The foundation for the new woolen factory at Oregon City has been commenced, and the work seems to infuse new spirit into the inhabitants. We paid a flying visit to the town on Saturday, and felt gratified at the cheering prospects of the place. Everything that tends to promote the interests of Oregon City, is in a corresponding degree beneficial to Portland, and as nature never could have formed such abundant water privileges as are afforded by the Falls of the Willamette, without some purpose, it is but just to conclude that man must improve them.

ESCAPED CONVICTS.—John Martin and Lewis Walton escaped from the convict gang yesterday, while laboring at Thornally's brick yard. A reward of one hundred dollars is offered for their apprehension. One of these, it will be remembered, passed into the prison quite recently, as the original "pie biter," but his right to the appellation has been disputed, by a man in Boise. Should they meet the distinction can be settled, and may result in the return of the convict to his quarters.

BLACK BERRIES.—The juvenile portion of our city were well represented on the side hills south of the city yesterday, in pursuit of black berries. Some of the older inhabitants were also out, after the seedy fruit. Several parties prosecuted their search as far from home as to the bluffs in the rear of the White House, with a very good result. The ride, the drive, the sport, and the berries, are productive of health, and have an invigorating tendency especially when somebody helps to carry the basket.

AN ARTESIAN WELL.—For many years there has been a prevailing idea at Canemah, that by boring in a certain locality a vein of salt water could be struck, that would prove a lasting benefit to the place, and a source of profit to the projectors. In accordance with this opinion Mr. Cassidy has recently commenced operations there, for boring an artesian well. We hope the enterprise may prove a success.

AN EXTRADITION CASE.—The Victoria papers contain an account of a thief named Strollix, who was arrested in that city on the 20th inst., on suspicion of having committed a robbery in Portland. The Colonist says he had goods in his possession that were supposed to be the spoils of his operations and he was remanded for one week in order to give time to hear from our authorities.

ASTORIA PACKETS.—The schooner Ellen sailed for Astoria, and the fortifications at the mouth of the Columbia, with a cargo of brick, yesterday. The schooner Harvest Queen, engaged in the same trade, is now loading at Abernethy's wharf. This latter craft is a fine built model, and it seems pretty rough to put her to toating brick, but Uncle Sam's work must be done, as well as "any other man's."

GOING HOME.—Officer Ward delivered to Superintendent Huntington, on board the steamer Senator yesterday morning, seventeen head of aborigines, fugitives from the Grand Ronde reservation, in Yamhill county. They will be taken home, when a big wa wa is expected. There are a great many more about the city that need to be "gobbled up" and sent to their homes.

THE FOURTH AT VANCOUVER.—Our neighbors at Vancouver have decided not to let the Glorious Old Fourth pass, without a spark of remembrance, and will, accordingly, celebrate. Brig. Gen. Alvord is to deliver the oration. In the evening a ball is to be given in behalf of the Sanitary Commission by the Ladies' Aid Society. Portland is expected to contribute something on the occasion.

LIME.—The properties of lime are such as to drive off impurities wherever a decomposure has rendered the air obnoxious, and it would be well to apply quantities along wharves and warehouses in this city, that have been submerged by the recent freshet. We observe that Capt. Couch has set a good example about his premises.

OAK POINT LUMBER.—The schooner Davis arrived from Oak Point yesterday, laden with lumber. She has 27,000 feet on board, and the commander informed us that the run was made from Oak Point to Portland in about 16 hours, sailing time. This is pretty good, considering the set of the current of both rivers, the Columbia and Willamette.

THE COUNTY PAUPERS.—Sealed proposals for the care and attendance of the indigent of our county will be received at the Clerk's office, in the Court House, until Wednesday next. The proposals are to state the price per day, the name of sureties, and be subjected to an examination by the board of county commissioners.

FREIGHT BY THE STEAMSHIP.—The freight taken by the Stephens from Portland this trip was meagre, consisting of butter in cases, and a few bales of wool. The cost of baling, the freight, etc., leaves but a small margin of profit on wool shipped to California at the present rates.

THE FOOT RACE.—The preliminaries have all been arranged for the foot race, and it is expected to occur this afternoon at five o'clock. The track selected is on the opposite bank of the river, near the ferry landing. We understand side bets are freely offered by the friends of the contestants.

PUBLIC MEETING.—The friends of the National Freedmen's Relief Association will hold a meeting at the Methodist Episcopal Church, on Wednesday evening at 7½ o'clock. Addresses will be made by C. H. Brackett, Esq., Agent, Gov. Gibbs, Hon. J. H. Mitchell, Judge G. H. Williams and others. A subscription for the cause will be taken up. We hope there will be a full attendance.

A TOUCHING INCIDENT OF THE BATTLE FIELD.—An army correspondent of the New York Tribune, gives the following account of an incident of the late battle of the Wilderness:

"Far down the plank road where Hancock fought, beyond the thickest rebel dead, lay a boy severely wounded, perhaps not less a soldier that he was but a boy. He had taken the day before, when we were farthest advanced, and had remained unmolested within the rebel lines. They had not removed him, and he was alone with the rebel dead when I rode up. The poor fellow was crawling about gathering violets. Faint with the loss of blood, unable to stand, he could not resist the tempting flowers, and had already made a beautiful bouquet. Having caused a stretcher to be sent for, I saw him taken up tenderly and borne away, wearing a brave, sweet touching smile."

FROM THE MILITARY EXPEDITION.—We learn from Capt. Curry's military expedition that his campaign thus far has resulted in the death of six Indians. The command was encamped some three or four weeks ago, on the Owyhee, and learning that there was a small party of Snake Indians engaged in fishing on Jordan creek, a tributary of the Owyhee, they set out to capture them. Arriving at the spot, they were found to be only seven in number; and an attempt was made to take them prisoners, when they fled and concealed themselves among the rocks. A party of Cayuse Indians, who are with the command, followed and killed six of them. The seventh escaped. The expedition is now scouting about the country along the Owyhee.—Walla Walla Statesman.

MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING AFFAIR.—On Tuesday, Mr. Lewis Marengo, of Tucanon, was shot dead by some unknown person. He was at the time out in his field at work, and the shot that killed him was fired from some bushes near by. His family hearing the gun, went out and found him lying dead where he had been shot, but saw nothing of the person who fired the gun. Mr. Marengo was a Canadian Frenchman, between fifty and sixty years of age, and was known as a peaceful, inoffensive man. He was formerly in the Hudson Bay employ and has been for many years a resident of this country.—W. W. Statesman, June 24th.

EMIGRANT HORSES.—An emigrant wagon and a drove of about thirty fine American horses arrived at Virginia City a few days ago, from Brown county, Illinois. One of the animals was sold to the Empire company, and the owner was offered upwards of fifteen hundred dollars for another one of the same lot.

The National Freedmen's Relief Association.—C H Brackett, agent, will address the citizens of Oregon City on Thursday evening, June 30th. Make an address at Dayton, Friday, July 1st; at Lafayette, Saturday evening, July 2d; at Salem, Tuesday evening, July 5th; Vancouver, Friday, July 8th, and at the Dalles on the evenings of the 10th and 12th July.

Complaints of Children.—In the case of fast-growing and scrofulous children, predisposed to curvatures and other deformities, it is often disagreeable to give a tonic without stimulants, and an alterative without irritation. For such, it would be impossible to select a preparation combining so many of the above advantages as the PERUVIAN SYRUP.

Coughs and Colds.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket, and taken as occasion requires.
REDINGTON & Co., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. ap26d1m

In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system, is acknowledged by all.
Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, and take no other. Sold everywhere.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle field—the mansion of the rich, and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valley, and far off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

REEDSBURY, Wis. Sept. 16, 1863.
* * * I have been in the army hospital for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * *
C. A. FLAUTE."

SOUTH WARSAW, O., July 25, 1863.
* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.
EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET, }
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863. }

"DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness, and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased and she is now well! Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE."

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.
Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS.
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.
H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O."

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c. all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

What the Birds Said

BY JOHN G. WHITTIER

The birds against the April wind
Flew Northward singing as they flew
They sang—the land we leave behind
Has swords for corn blades blood for dew

"O wild birds flying from the South
What saw and heard ye, gazing down
We saw the mortar's upturn'd mouth
The sickened camp, the blazing town

"Beneath the bivouac's starry lamps
We saw our marching armies lie
In shroud of [illegible] ships
We saw your dead uncoffined [illegible]

"We heard the starving prisoner's sighs
And saw from line and trench your sons
Follow our flight with home-sick eyes
Beyond the battery's smoking guns

"And heard and saw we only wrong
And pain [illegible] O wing-worn flocks"
"We heard" they sang "the freedman's song,
The clash of Slavery's broken locks

"We saw from new uprising States
The treason-nursing mischief spurned
As crowding Freedom's ample gates,
The long estranged and lost returned

"O'er dusky faces seamed and old
And hands horn hard with unpaid toil
With hope in every rustling fold
We saw your star-dropt flag uncoil

"And, struggling by through sounds accursed,
A grateful murmur [illegible] clear
A whisper scarcely heard at first
It filled the listening heavens with prayer

"And sweet and far as from a star
Replied a voice which shall not cease
Till, drowning all the noise of war
It sings the blessed song of peace"

So to me in a doubtful day
Of chill and slowly greening Spring,
Low stooping from the cloudy gray
The wild birds sang or seemed to sing

They vanished in the misty air
The song went with them in their flight,
But lo they left the sunset fair
And in the evening there was light

MONSTER GUN CASTING.—Some time since the reader will remember, a monster 20 inch gun was cast at Fort Pitt Works, of which at the time we gave a full account. As the monster—the largest gun ever cast—is fast approaching completion we will recapitulate some of the facts previously given. Weight of gun rough 170,000 pounds, weight of gun, finished, 115,000 pounds length of gun, rough 200 inches, length of gun, finished, [illegible] inches diameter maximum rough 66 [illegible] diameter, maximum, finished, 64 [illegible] diameter minimum, rough 48 inches, [illegible] minimum finished, 34 inches, bore, inches, depth of bore 210 inches, weight [illegible] shot, 1,000 pounds charge of powder, [illegible] pounds. This gun which has been for some [illegible] undergoing the process of completion, [illegible] in a very short time be ready for trial [illegible] is confidently predicted that it will [illegible] a grand success. Thus far there has [illegible] yet discovered the slightest flaw in the [illegible] of which it is composed and when the [illegible] trial arrives we predict that it will [illegible] the test to which it will be subjected [illegible] us add another triumph to Pittsburg [illegible] ingenuity and enterprise. The gun in question is intended for the infantry arm of the [illegible] and will probably be mounted upon [illegible] the various forts on the seacoast, [illegible] the hostile fleet that ventures within [illegible]

Yesterday there was another of these iron [illegible] twenty inch guns cast at Fort Pitt [illegible] which is destined for the naval arm of the [illegible] though not generally known [illegible] was about to take place [illegible] a large number of per[illegible] the operation, and [illegible] foreign officers—[illegible] Britannic Majesty's [illegible] Swedish naval [illegible] Both of these officers [illegible] to this country by their [illegible] the purpose of [illegible] gun casting foundries [illegible] in order that they may [illegible] their observations on their [illegible] our trans Atlantic neighbors [illegible]

[illegible] the casting [illegible] following [illegible] monster [illegible] to throw a solid [illegible] 1,000 pounds?

The gun cast yesterday, although a 22-inch, [illegible] is the one intended for the land service. Its dimensions are as follows. Whole length of gun 20 feet 6 inches, length [illegible] feet 6 inches weight of solid shot [illegible] weight of shell 750 pounds, charge of powder, 100 pounds. This gun [illegible] was cast upon the Rodman [illegible] with a hollow core. It may not be uninteresting [illegible] give the time in which it was [illegible] furnaces (3, 4, 5 [illegible] at 11 o'clock and 15 minutes yesterday morning. Number four was ready [illegible] at 17 minutes past 11 o'clock [illegible] minutes past 10 o'clock, and [illegible] at 45 minutes past 10 o'clock. No [illegible] three was held in reserve to meet any accident which might possibly occur in the process of casting the gun.

At precisely 12 o'clock 51 minutes and 30 [illegible] the molten metal was released from [illegible] confinement in the furnace and rushed hissing [illegible] seething along the channels which [illegible] it to the mold, and in 22 minutes [illegible] seconds the undertaking was accomplished without the slightest untoward incident. Indeed, so complete are the arrangements for casting guns at this establishment, that those who immediately superintend the operation seem scarcely to realize the magnitude of the undertaking believing that a 20 inch gun can be cast as perfect as the smallest piece of metal machinery. It will require six or seven days for this gun to cool to such a degree as to allow its removal from its present position.

It is related that a rebel officer, captured in a recent battle, asked wonderingly "Who is the [illegible] the hell? What part of the map is it on? I never heard of it till the war commenced."

What is justice? A pair of scales in which the actions of mankind are often weighed, the true weights being sometimes bought up by power and wealth whilst others that are incorrect are substituted.

The only bid for the Confederate bonds put up at auction in Halifax some months ago was by a canny Scotchman who offered five cents per pound weight for them, for packing paper.

A sensible mother made disease and ill temper identical with her children and physicked them for both. Peevishness or ill temper were associated with rhubarb in their minds always as cause and effect.

There is a river near Quito in South America the waters of which are as sour as vinegar. What a splendid place for a person to go to recruit his health.

Josh Billings says he never owned but one Shanghie and he got choked to death by the kink of a clothes line after he had swallowed eighteen feet of it.

An English doctor, through the London Lancet recommends whisky as a remedy for the cure of asthma.

HOW GEN. GRANT FIRST ENTERED THE SERVICE FOR THE PRESENT WAR.—Never was the quotation "Man proposes but God disposes" more strikingly exemplified than in the following account of Gen Grant. At the commencement of the rebellion an Illinois Representative called upon Gov. Yates to recommend to him Mr. Grant as a fit person for military position. The Governor had received applications from some men over six feet in height and of muscular frames, and therefore curiously eyed the small man, attired in homespun, that stood before him as an applicant. He then asked his grounds for making the application.

"I was educated at West Point," said Grant "at the country's expense. I served in Mexico, and when I went out to Oregon I thought I had returned to the country an equivalent for my education and I resigned. The country is now in trouble, and I wish to serve her in her need."

Gov. Yates had no appointment for him, and he, therefore, left.

Some short time after this occurrence the Governor was very much distressed in regard to the raising of the quota of the State. He had plenty of offers for officers' positions but he personally did not know the minutia of regimental organizations—how many privates composed a company or how many subordinate officers there should be in a regiment. In his distress he asked the Representative if that plain little man, to whom he had been introduced, knew anything of these matters. The Representative replied by bringing Grant into the Governor's presence.

"Do you understand the organization of troops?" inquired the Governor.

The reply was in the affirmative.

"Will you accept a desk in my office for that purpose?" was the next question.

"Anything to serve my country," was Grant's reply.

And to work he at once went. And but for this Grant might still be unknown to the world. By his energy Illinois became noted for the speed with which she filled her quota.

REPRODUCTION OF THE POLYPUS.—In experiments upon the lower animals, such as the polype, it is most extraordinary that although cut up into various pieces, each particular piece will grow up into the form of the primitive stock, the head if separated will reproduce the body and tail, and, if you cut off the tail, you will find that it will reproduce the body and all the members without in any way deviating from the plan of the organism from which these portions have been detached. And so far does this go, that some experimentalists have carefully examined the lower orders of animals—among them the Abbe Spallanzani, who made a number of experiments on snails and salamanders—and have found that they might mutilate them to an incredible extent, that you might cut off the jaw or the greater part of the head, or the leg or the tail, and repeat the experiment several times, perhaps cutting off the same members again, and yet each of these types would be reproduced according to the primitive type—Nature making no mistake, never putting on a fresh kind of leg, or head, or tail, but always tending to repeat and to return the primitive type.—Professor Huxley.

It is well known that the medical effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron without further oxidation has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN, and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M. D.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry and it is impossible to over estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most valuable article in Materia Medica and many of the most eminent and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr. Henry Anders a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This considered impossible by scientific world is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city and Prof. Booth U. S. Mint Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see American Medical Monthly July 6, 1856, page 75.)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases Rheumatism Neuralgia Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh strength and color hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble become more full, strong and florid.

What the Birds Said.

BY JOHN G. WHITTIER.

The birds, against the April wind,
Flew Northward, singing as they flew;
They sang "the land we leave behind
Has swords for corn-blades, blood for dew."

"O wild birds, flying from the South,
What saw and heard ye, gazing down?"
"We saw the mortar's upturned mouth,
The sickened camp, the blazing town,

"Beneath the bivouac's starry lamps,
We saw our march-worn children die;
In shrouds of moss, in cypress swamps,
We saw our dead uncoffined lie.

"We heard the starving prisoner's sighs;
And saw, from line and trench, your sons
Follow our flight with home-sick eyes
Beyond the battery's smoking guns.

"And heard and saw ye only wrong
And pain," I cried, "O wing-worn flocks!"
"We heard" they sang, "the Freedmen's song,
The clash of Slavery's broken locks.

"We saw from new, uprising States
The treason-nursing mischief spurned,
As crowding Freedom's ample gates,
The long estranged and lost returned.

"O'er dusky faces, seamed and old,
And hands horn hard with unpaid toil,
With hope in every rustling fold,
We saw your star-dropt flag uncoil.

"And, struggling up through sounds accursed,
A grateful murmur clomb the air,
A whisper scarcely heard at first,
It filled the listening heavens with prayer.

"And sweet and far, as from a star,
Replied a voice which shall not cease,
Till, drowning all the noise of war,
It sings the blessed songs of peace."

So to me, in a doubtful day
Of chill and slowly greening Spring,
Low stooping from the cloudy gray,
The wild birds sang or seemed to sing.

They vanished in the misty air;
The song went with them in their flight;
But lo! they left the sunset fair,
And in the evening there was light.

MONSTER GUN CASTING.—Some time since, the reader will remember, a monster 20-inch gun was cast at Fort Pitt Works, of which at the time we gave a full account. As the [illegible] the largest gun ever cast, is fast approaching completion, we will recapitulate some of the [illegible] previously given. Weight of gun, rough, [illegible] pounds; weight of gun, finished, [illegible] pounds; length of gun, rough, [illegible] [illegible] 24 [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] inches diameter, [illegible] diameter, at muzzle, [illegible] 20 inches, [illegible] of solid shot [illegible] 80 pounds. This gun, which has been for some time undergoing the process of completion, will in a very short time be ready for trial, and it is confidently predicted that it will prove a grand success. Thus far there has not been discovered the slightest flaw in the metal of which it is composed, and when the day of trial arrives we predict that it will stand the test to which it will be subjected, and thus add another triumph to Pittsburg ingenuity and enterprise. The gun in question is intended for the infantry arm of the service, and will probably be mounted upon some of the various forts on the sea-coast, and woe to the hostile fleet that ventures within its range.

Yesterday there was another of these iron monster twenty-inch guns cast at Fort Pitt works, which is destined for the naval arm of the service. Although it was not generally known that such an event was about to take place, still there was quite a large number of persons present to witness the operation, and among them we noticed two foreign officers—one, Capt. Ballston, of her Britannic Majesty's Royal Artillery, the other a Swedish naval officer named Rosen. Both of these officers have been accredited to this country by their respective Governments for the purpose of visiting our arsenals, navy yards, gun casting foundries, etc., etc., in order that they may report the result of their observations on their return. It seems that our trans-Atlantic neighbors are beginning to wake up on the subject of casting heavy ordnance.

The London Times of a late date, alluding to the casting of the 20 inch gun, makes the following important admission: "In the calibre of its ordinance Europe is now, as it ever has been, far behind America. In Pittsburg in Pennsylvania, a 50-ton gun has just been cast for the United States Government. This monster piece of ordnance, which is stated to be perfect in its casting, is to throw a solid 20 inch shot weighing 1,000 pounds."

The gun cast yesterday, although a 20-inch, is not so large as the one intended for the land service. Its dimensions are as follows: Whole length of gun, 20 feet 5 inches, length of bore, 17 feet 6 inches; weight of solid shot, 1,000 pounds; weight of shell, 750 pounds; charge of powder, 100 pounds. This gun, like its companion, was cast upon the Rodman principle, with a hollow core. It may not be uninteresting to give the time in which it was cast. There were four furnaces (3, 4, 5 and 6) charged at 4 o'clock and 15 minutes yesterday morning. Number four was ready for tapping at 17 minutes past 11 o'clock, number five at 55 minutes past 10 o'clock, and number six at 45 minutes past 10 o'clock. Number three was held in reserve to meet any accident which might possibly occur in the process of casting the gun.

At precisely 12 o'clock 54 minutes and 30 seconds the molten metal was released from its confinement in the furnace and rushed hissing and seething along the channels which conveyed it to the mold, and in 22 minutes and 52 seconds the undertaking was accomplished, without the slightest untoward incident. Indeed, so complete are the arrangements for casting guns at this establishment, that those who immediately superintend the operation seem scarcely to realize the magnitude of the undertaking, [illegible] that a 20-inch gun can be cast as [illegible] as the smallest piece of metal [illegible]. It will require six or seven days [illegible] to cool to such a degree as to allow its removal from its present position.

It is related [illegible] captured in a recent battle [illegible]: "[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] What part of the map is [illegible] [illegible] of it till the war commenced?"

What is justice? A pair of scales, in which the [illegible] mankind are often weighed; the true weights being sometimes bought up by power and wealth, whilst others that are incorrect are substituted.

[illegible] Confederate bonds put up [illegible] Halifax, some months ago, was [illegible] Scotchman, who offered five cents per pound weight for them, for packing paper.

A sensible mother made disease and ill-temper identical, with her children and physicked them for both. Peevishness or ill-temper were associated with rhubarb in their minds always as cause and effect.

There is a river near Quito, in South America, the waters of which are as sour as vinegar. What a splendid place for a person to go to recruit his health.

Josh Billings says he never owned but one Shanghie, and he got choked to death by the kink of a "close" line after he had swallowed eighteen feet of it.

AN English doctor, through the London Lancet, recommends whisky as a remedy for the cure of asthma.

HOW GEN. GRANT FIRST ENTERED THE SERVICE FOR THE PRESENT WAR.—Never was the quotation "Man proposes, but God disposes," more strikingly exemplified than in the following anecdote of Gen. Grant: At the commencement of the rebellion an Illinois Representative called upon Gov. Yates to recommend to him Mr. Grant as a fit person for military position. The Governor had received applications from some men over six feet in hight and of muscular frames, and, therefore, curiously eyed the small man, attired in homespun, that stood before him as an applicant. He then asked his grounds for making the application.

"I was educated at West Point," said Grant, "at the country's expense. I served in Mexico, and when I went out to Oregon I thought I had returned to the country an equivalent for my education; and I resigned. The country is now in trouble, and I wish to serve her in her need."

Gov. Yates had no appointment for him, and he, therefore, left.

Some short time after this occurrence the Governor was very much distressed in regard to the raising of the quota of the State. He had plenty of offers for officers' positions, but he personally did not know the minutia of regimental organizations—how many privates composed a company or how many subordinate officers there should be in a regiment. In his distress he asked the Representative if that plain little man, to whom he had been introduced, knew anything of those matters. The Representative replied by bringing Grant into the Governor's presence.

"Do you understand the organization of troops?" inquired the Governor.

The reply was in the affirmative.

"Will you accept a desk in my office for that purpose?" was the next question.

"Anything to serve my country," was Grant's reply.

And to work he at once went. And but for this Grant might still be unknown to the world. By his energy Illinois became noted for the speed with which she filled her quota.

REPRODUCTION OF THE POLYPUS.—In experiments upon the lower animals, such as the polype, it is most extraordinary that, although cut up into various pieces, each particular piece will grow up into the form of the primitive stock; the head, if separated, will reproduce the body and tail; and, if you cut off the tail, you will find that it will reproduce the body and all the members, without in any way deviating from the plan of the organism from which these portions have been detached. And so far does this go, that some experimentalists have carefully examined the [illegible]—among them the Abbe Spallanzani, who made a number of experiments on snails and salamanders—and [illegible] [illegible] that you might cut off [illegible] part of the head, or the leg or the tail, [illegible] the experiment several times, [illegible] the same members again, and yet [illegible] types would be reproduced [illegible] to the primitive type—Nature making no mistake, never putting [illegible] or head, or [illegible] but always tending to [illegible] such the primitive type.—[illegible]

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

OR PROTECTED

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with Great Success in Curing

DYSPEPSIA,

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Scurvy, the prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all Diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

Rev. JOHN PIERPONT,	THOMAS C. AMORY,
THOMAS A. DEXTER,	PETER HARVEY,
S. H. KENDALL, M D,	JAMES C. DUNN,
SAMUEL MAY,	Rev. THOS. WHITTEMORE.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M D,

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. [illegible] Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth U. S. Mint, [illegible]. The importance of this discovery was so [illegible] by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use [illegible] to practitioners [illegible] American Medical [illegible] July 6, 1859. [illegible]

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for [illegible] Consumption, [illegible] Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY [illegible] the stomach, liver and excretory organs [illegible] and conservative. It regulates, recruits [illegible] system. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its [illegible] and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutricious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish [illegible] the system, regulating the [illegible] giving tone to the [illegible] every [illegible] whole machinery of [illegible] and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER KIDNEYS

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure for the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

MEDICAL WONDER

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition
